

Sunil Kumar R – General Profile

Leader – Coach - Trainer – Author - Mentor – Guru - Friend or any other title ... whatever Sunil Kumar is acknowledged with, he upholds your opinion for sure.

You become what you can see in yourself ... is what he professes and practices.

A renowned and experienced national and global leader Sunil's mission is to inspire and mentor leaders, professionals; success seekers; role models; entrepreneurs; executives; students..to remain as life long achievers and learners.

Sunil Kumar's most illustrious profile is packed with leadership roles; contribution to communities; training and most unique and mega accomplishments. Sunil is a great blend of all. His innovative; adventurous; challenging and complex; and perseverant and steadfast initiatives make his life reflect quality; rarity; clarity; charity and authenticity in all that he endeavors. Here are some stunning facts of Sunil that illuminate his profile:

- Speaker; trainer and management consultant
- Qualified International Trainer – Conferred International Training Fellowship by the Jaycees International (JCI) (2nd Asian)
- Conducted over 1,600 training programs in 18 countries of the world
- Alumni of over 500 trainers across India and beyond who grew as trainers under his training & mentoring.
- Authored and co-authored books and publications for his participants in several life-changing workshops. Some of these include: Paradox of Possibilities; Tomorrow in Now; Broadband Your Benchmarks; Best & Beyond; Unlocking Uncertainties; Managing for Excellence; The Leader; The Trainer; Meeting specialist with emphasis on Parliamentary Procedures and more.
- Offered Leadership at National & International level to large organizations including Travel & Tourism Industry, Lions Clubs International and Jaycees.
- 1989-90 National President of Jaycees International and rose up to serve as the World Executive Vice President (2nd Global rank).
- 2012-2014 International Director on the Board of Lions International.
- 2014-2019 National President of Travel Agents Association of India (TAAI), established in 1949
- Currently, Global President of United Federation of Travel Agents Association, UFTAA, since 2015. He is currently reelected.

- Addressed over a hundred conferences and study groups, delivering keynotes; presentations on several subjects; and as an active panelist leading interactive discussions. This unstoppable activity continues. His participant groups include; top Conventions of Life Insurance; Educational organizations; Lions; Rotary; Jaycees; Medical Associations and more.
- A specialist designer and organizer of large events. He chaired some spending travel industry's top events including "India Travel Congress or TAAI Conventions" at Sri Lanka; Dubai; Bali; Abu Dhabi; Kunming in China and Srinagar in India. Actively associated with other large global and national events. He also led the organizing of global events for Lions and Jaycees.
- Sunil is motivated to continue discovering. He has visited 89 countries and his quest to travel and visit new places continues.
- Sunil lives in Hyderabad with his wife Kavitha. The happy couple have two sons, both successfully accomplished Engineering from India and holding double masters in Engineering and Management from North America.
- Sunil is a Graduate in Commerce with Honours & Graduate of LAW from Osmania University.
- He is the first Indian and second Asian to be conferred with the International Training Fellow (ITF 040) by Jaycees. He is among the first Indian's to be conferred with Lions Certified Instruction (LCIP) by Lions Clubs International.
- Sunil is also awarded the Best Senator of the World, presented to him at JCI World Congress in Pusan, Korea, during 1994.
- He is awarded the most prestigious Ambassador of Goodwill by Lions International; Most influential travel Professional Award by NDTV Profit; Best Senator of the World by Jaycees International; Game Changer Award by and many more awards for his incredible achievements.
- Sunil's most recent book that has grown most popular is Where's my Couch? – Discover Comfort in Discomfort, which has hit the stands and market places like Amazon, Flipkart and more..